

ART CAMPS

Newport Visual Arts Center
Summer 2018

Where's Your Art? July 16-19, 9am to 3pm, Ages 10-14

Develop your young artist's creative skills and interests. Reinforce habits of creativity. Have fun! Art Camp will include a variety of activities and projects, resulting in a public exhibit of student artwork at the Newport Visual Arts Center. Hands-on art making (drawing, sculpture) will be reinforced through presentations on foundational art concepts (color theory, perspective, materials) and outdoor adventures to visit public artworks. Campers will work with various media and tools. Campers start by designing their personal VAC Art Camp T-Shirt and move onto filling their sketchbooks with drawings of the Nye Beach neighborhood.

Registration: $200 (scholarships available); Supplies included (sketch book, portfolio, drawing pencils, T-shirt)
Snacks and refreshments included; brown bag lunch NOT included; Class limit: 15

Where's Your Art? July 30-Aug. 2, 9am to noon, Ages 6-9

Introduce your young artist to the motions and rhythms of creativity, and the colors, patterns and materials of art making. Have fun! Camp will include a variety of activities, games, group projects, outdoor adventures and more. Portraits of stuffed animals, robot-making, and illustrated storytelling will be included. Campers will work with various media and tools. Campers start by designing their personal VAC Art Camp T-shirt, and move onto to filling their sketchbook with drawings of the Nye Beach neighborhood.

Registration: $125 (scholarships available); Supplies included (sketchbook, drawing pencils, T-shirt)
Snacks and refreshments included; brown bag lunch NOT included; Class limit: 15
